

COMPETITIONS/WEDSTRYDE

A. Winners of our previous issue:

The competition for primary school children was well supported and no less than 55 entrants from all over the country identified the person as Cecil John Rhodes. Unfortunately only 3 pupils could win prizes.

1. The first prize goes to P Fouché of Napier. Congratulations. Your R30 is on its way.
2. The two consolation prizes were won by Kosie van der Merwe of Breyten and Karin Stemmet of Randfontein.

The open competition was unfortunately not well supported. The answer of the winner Mrs A du Plessis is however worth quoting.

(b) "Hitler het homself omring met ryk industrialiste wat hom in staat gestel het om sy Ryk op te bou (die geld). Hierdie ryk was egter tot groot ellende van die Jode wat uitgehonger in die strafkampe gesterf het (die ribbebene)".

A consolation price could unfortunately not be awarded.

B. COMPETITION FOR THIS ISSUE — ONLY FOR PRIMARY SCHOOL PUPILS

Who are the three heroes whose bravery is depicted in the three photos below?

Write down the surnames of the three heroes. (To help you a little the names of the three heroes are Japie, Elizabeth and Wolraad).
